

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- In the situation where a student has deferred a course of study and then later cancels enrolment, the level of refund applicable will be that which was at the point of deferment.
- Payments of allowable refunds will be made within four (4) weeks of the receipt of an Application for Refund of Student Fees form.
- Students/businesses with an unsuccessful application for a refund will be notified in writing (by email). Should you wish to dispute the refund decision, you may access and follow our Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure (available on the website).
- Our Fees and Charges and Refund Policy and Procedure applies equally to all students. The availability of a complaints and appeals procedure does not remove your right to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws, nor do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.
- The above-mentioned student/business agrees to repay to on demand, any payments credited in error. We reserve the right to off-set the amount of any overpayment made in error against any future debt or liability owing to the RTO by the student/business.

Where a domestic student opts to withdraw from an enrolled RPL service, the following refunds will apply, based on the up-front fee of $1,000 and a non-refundable $350 administration fee:

- date of enrolment to 10 working days (cooling off period): student is eligible to receive a refund of $650
- 11 working days to 3 months from date of enrolment: student is eligible to receive a refund of $100
- 3 months and 1 day onwards: student is not eligible for a refund.
